A fun hour of stories and songs for all ages with Ken Galipeau and Carol Titus. Come ready to laugh and sing and participate with your whole selves. Ken Galipeau is a local storyteller/singer/songwriter who spent many of his summers growing up in Rhode Island. His uncle "Ish Kabibble" [from an old radio show] is one of the main characters of the title story. A talented fish is the other.

Ken and Carol will share stories and songs, some of which are true and some of which "merely happened". Come if you are a grown-up, gather up kids wherever you can find them. Just come and join the fun.

Tickets $7. Available at the door or at the Fellowship Box Office 973 540 1177.
